

The best employees don't necessarily have to be the brightest or smartest. They need to have a positive attitude and leave their personal problems at home.

Laura Toddies